Information Session on Provincial Housing Cuts – October 17, 2012

Local housing advocates are asking the provincial government to reconsider its decision to cut the Community Start Up and Maintenance Benefit (CSUMB) and the Home Repairs Benefit (HRB) effective January 1, 2013. The CSUMB is a benefit that is available to recipients of Ontario Works (OW) and Ontario Disability (ODSP) benefits once every two years to help cover the cost of major expenses such as last month's rent deposits, rent and hydro arrears, hook-up fees for utilities, and emergency furniture replacements. The HRB was available to homeowners on OW or ODSP to cover the cost of necessary repairs to their homes. Because monthly social assistance rates are low, recipients cannot afford to pay for such expenses with their monthly income. If the cut goes ahead, the HRB will be lost completely and only 50% of former CSUMB monies will be given to municipalities across Ontario to fund homelessness prevention programs.

The reduction in benefits will have a devastating impact on people in our community, as less money will be available to help people meet emergency housing needs. Staff at the Community Advocacy & Legal Centre, which provides legal advice to tenants in Hastings, Prince Edward, and Lennox & Addington counties, fear that the cut to CSUMB will lead to increased homelessness locally. Often, where a tenant has fallen into rent arrears due to job loss or other unforeseen circumstances, eviction can be prevented by accessing CSUMB monies.

The CSUMB is also used by women and families trying to move from transitional shelters into permanent homes after experiencing domestic violence; people who cannot afford the rising cost of utilities; people with disabilities who are trying to move from hospital into the community; and people who need to move for reasons such as a change in family size or maintenance problems.

It is not too late for citizens to express their opinions on this issue by contacting government ministers or MPPs. The Community Advocacy & Legal Centre will be holding an information session on October 17, 2012, from 4 – 4:30 pm at the Peer 17 Support Centre in Napanee (58 Dundas Street East). All are welcome to attend to learn more about the cuts to the CSUMB and the HRB, and to participate in the campaign to restore these vital homelessness prevention benefits.
