

Trying to find a video on tenants' rights to show a Turkish-speaking tenants' group? Need information about what happens when a person with a disability reports abuse to the police? Then check out www.cleonet.ca.

Now, for the first time, Ontario's community organizations and legal clinics have one central online place to find community legal education resources, news, and events.

Unique in Canada, CLEONet is an easily searchable collection of hundreds of resources and news items, on a wide range of legal topics, and in a number of languages. CLEONet not only helps legal clinics and community organizations find resources, share information, and work together online, but also increases access to justice for Ontario's most vulnerable communities.

So spend a few minutes checking out the site. Then visit it again soon as we add new resources and news items all the time. And don't forget to give us your feedback so we can make CLEONet even better.
